

CWA SCHOOL ODE

Oh, for a thousand tongues to sing!
College of West Africa
Our Alma Mater's name to sing
College of West Africa
We come thy grateful children all
Pierian blessings to recall,
Our tributes at thy shrine now fall,
College of West Africa.

Liberia's sun doth o'er thee roll,
College of West Africa
Inspiring day by day the soul,
College of West Africa
Let woods and valleys now awake,
Let rocks and hills their silence break
And join with us thy praise to speak
College of West Africa

Thou aidest those who seek to know
College of West Africa
The old, the young, the high, the low
College of West Africa
Pervading o'er these classic walls,
Suffusing thy historic halls,
Like gentle dew fair learning falls,
College of West Africa.

The years may come, the years may go
College of West Africa
But knowledge from thee still will flow
College of West Africa
Through all the changing scenes of time,
Posterity thy flame sublime
Shall henceforth waft from clime to clime
College of West Africa
