

Austin Mambu Freeman, BSCE, MMPM, MBA, PMP

Mambu is a member of class of 78 (Atang) and presently serves as their Vice President. He has been a project manager in the water/wastewater and transportation industries for over 30 years. He received his Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering from Howard University and a Master of Management specializing in project management from the university of Maryland University college. He is a certified project management professional. He is married with two children and an amazing grandson. He enjoys watching sports and helping the less fortunate.